

Contents

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Preface | ix |
| Arthur Petersen & Juan Pablo Pardo-Guerra | |
| ISYP Workshop on New Challenges to Human Security, Wageningen, June 2006: report | xi |
| Rens de Man and Nienke van der Burgt | |
| The Pugwash movement and an agenda for human security | xix |
| M. S. Swaminathan | |

ISYP Journal on Science and World Affairs, Vol. 2, No. 1, 2006

Articles

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| A world without war: is it desirable? is it feasible? | 1 |
| Joseph Rotblat | |
| Nuclear disarmament education and the experiences of Hiroshima and Nagasaki | 9 |
| Yumiko Nogami | |
| Reflections about Korean history and its impact on the US-North Korean conflict | 19 |
| Andreas Henneka | |
| The United States dealing with nuclear terrorism: cooperation for prevention | 29 |
| Sarah Bokhari | |

Brief

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Future ethical challenges in biology: thoughts from the UK Student/Young Pugwash symposium on bioethics, Imperial College, London, May 2005 | 43 |
| Mark Bowmaker | |

ISYP Journal on Science and World Affairs, Vol. 2, No. 2, 2006

Articles

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| New security challenges: broadening the Pugwash agenda? | 51 |
| Georg Frerks | |

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Poverty, relative deprivation and political exclusion as drivers of violent conflict in Sub Saharan Africa | 59 |
| Pyt Douma | |
| Academic and social responsibility of scientists | 71 |
| Tom Børsen Hansen | |
| Comments | |
| Ecological security: a 'more imaginative' response involving youth | 93 |
| Gerald Barney | |
| Conflict research: lancunas, mantras and pitfalls | 99 |
| Jolle Demmers | |
